We are moving in to final stage of the Bionicle Barraki production. The light and render people (Dn, Jesper, Karl and Rasmus) are working hard to get all the scenes ready for compositing. Sc 570 is in the hands of Christian Faber, and WILL be approved today;-)

Barraki at Ebay

Why wait. You can buy a complete set of the Barraki production line. The winning bid was US$ 112.

Does anybody know where my Barraki models are?

Sc 475 preview

Ole has done the first version of the sc 475 for the product movie (Vintage analogue stuff). Faber had some comments, and Ole is working on the scene as I write.

See it all in high rez

And have a nice weekend☺
