

UPDATE Sep 6:

- In the story "The Kingdom," Turaga Takanuva mentions that the island of Mata Nui is on the verge of collapse.
- Member turagapohatunuva points out that this effect of Mata Nui's death resembles the "rotting" of a body. It should make sense that following Mata Nui's death, his physical form would decay.

Other Evidence

The old logos used to have a split of the island of Mata Nui and the enemy's face. See the new parallel?
